Subscription

A fair number of WSTS Market Statistics Reports and Semiconductor Industry Forecasts is also available to organizations outside the WSTS membership. Different forms of subscriptions to WSTS information services may be entered depending on the location and type of business of the subscriber.

General

The term "Corporation" is used herebelow for a firm, company, institute or organization. The term "Semiconductor Manufacturer" is used herbelow for a Corporation that is defined as one, which controls the device design and marketing of semiconductors under its own brand, and takes the risks of inventories and customer satisfaction. Such a manufacturer may engage in all of the manufacturing steps required to produce a finished product or may contract other firms to do some or all of the wafer fabrication, device assembly, final test and any other manufacturing steps required to complete a product.

How to Become Subscriber to WSTS Information Services?
